

Back to Basics

One-FF Extension Ladder

Place ground ladder into base and flat raise against the building

Ladder should be fly section in against the building next to desired location

Place leg against beam and raise fly section using halyard

Once in place adjust if needed and tie halyard to secure ladder and communicate ladder location to units operating on the fire ground

Pull the ladder away from the building and roll ladder into place